

Employee Health, Safety and Wellness Promote Occupational Health and Safety in the Workplace

23rd – 26th October 2017

Coral Strand Hotel, Victoria, Mahe, Seychelles

Course Outcomes:

- Understand the importance of employee wellness on productivity
- Build the capacity of line manager to assist in employee wellness programs
- Monitor, measure and report on the effectiveness of the HWS programme
- Interpret the different acts and policies
- Identify health hazard zones and manage health and safety of the working environment
- Explain the communication processes in promoting occupational health and safety
- Demonstrate the planning and execution of a project designed to promote occupational health and safety

Who Should Attend?

- HR Directors, Managers and Practitioners
- Project Managers
- Line Managers responsible for Occupational Health & Safety
- Corporate Human Resources Managers
- Employee Relations Managers
- Employee Engagement Managers
- Employee Assistants Practitioners
- HIV Coordinators
- Health Managers
- Benefits and Wellness Managers
- Employee Wellness Practitioners / Officers / Representative
- Wellness Consultants

About your Presenter:

LLM (Labour Law), M.COMM.(H.R.Management), Diploma ( Project Management), BA(Agriculture), Diploma(Agriculture), Cert.Bus.Admin

Your Facilitator started his career at the Ncora Irrigation scheme as an Agronomy Technician where he was responsible for managing a meteorological station and report results to the weather station in Pretoria, liaise with Production Managers in terms of the findings from experiments and facilitate the implementation of the findings. Later he was Group Employee Relations Manager at the PG Bison (Pty) Ltd where he was responsible for wage negotiations, Attendance at CCMA and Bargaining Council, gave advice on all industrial relations matters. He designed and developed training programmes according to the needs of the departments. He facilitated training and involved in facilitation of course like: report writing and minute taking, Management and People management skills for new Managers. He conducted and facilitated training in the field of Human Resource and Labour Law and liaise with the department of labour in terms of submission of WSP and ATR documentation. He is also a professional member of the S.A Board of Personnel Practice (Registered Personnel Practitioner- Industrial Relations), Institute for People Management and Student Member with the Chartered Institute of Secret