

Integrated Risk Management and Governance for Public Entities

Premier Hotel, O R Tambo, Kempton Park, Johannesburg, South Africa

11th - 15th September 2017

5 Credits towards a Higher Certificate in Management, NQF Level 5

Course Outcomes:

- Addressing the Importance of Risk Management
- Highlighting the Responsibilities and Functions of Public Entities for Effective Risk Management
- Planning an Integrated Risk Management Strategy using the COSO Framework
- Integrating Risk Management, Internal Control and Performance Management
- Using ISO Standards Requirements for Enterprise Risk Reporting
- Addressing Governance Risk and Compliance for Government

Who Should Attend?

- Chief Risk Officers and CFO's
- Municipal Managers
- Internal Auditors
- Financial Controllers
- Risk Managers
- Chief Regional Officers
- Audit Committee Members
- Line-/senior Managers of Directorates or Departments
- Project Managers
- Procurement Managers and Officers
- Supervisors

About Your Presenters:

B Com Hon, M Com Business Economics and Economics, PhD Degree in Risk Management

Your Facilitator started his career at the South African Citrus Board in 1982 as an accountant. After that he was appointed as a senior manager at South African Reserve Bank, responsible for corporate governance, risk management, supervising trading activities of banks, with special on operational risk policies and procedures. He joined Ernst & Young during 2002, taking responsibility for auditing Corporate Governance, banks' regulatory requirements, risk management and banks' treasury activities. In 2004 He moved to FirstRand Banking Group ("FRB") where he was appointed as the Group Compliance Officer. Since 2001 he has served on a number of risk, audit and compliance committees as an independent member and in some instances as the independent chairperson. He has extensive lecturing experience in countries across Africa and Europe. His research focuses on financial management, risk management, compliance and ethics.