

Monitoring and Evaluation Mechanisms and Accountability for the Public Sector

4th – 8th December 2017

Premier Hotel, O. R. Tambo, Kempton Park, Johannesburg

5 credits towards a Diploma in Management, NQF level 6

This course is aligned with SAQA Unit Standard Number 337059

Apply Monitoring and Evaluation Approaches and Tools to Assess an Organisation's Or Programme's Performance in a Specific Context: Level 6

Learning Outcomes:

- Considering Legislation, Regulations, Mandates and Frameworks when M&E are Applied
- Applying the Principles of Monitoring and Evaluation when Assessing the Organization Programme
- Using Quantitative Research Design and Methodology for Monitoring and Evaluation of an Organisation
- Utilising Key Performance Indicators in Monitoring and Evaluation in Practice
- Designing a Monitoring and Evaluation Plan for Specific Context Using Quantitative Research Approach
- Establishing Management's Approach to Monitoring and Evaluation
- Implement a Monitoring and Evaluation Plan
- Present the Findings and Recommendations of a Monitoring And Evaluation Report on the Project or Plan

Who Should Attend?

- CFOs, Financial Directors and Managers
- All Chief and Deputy Directors
- Mayors and Municipal Managers
- Administration and Planning Directors
- HR Development Directors, Managers and Practitioners
- IDP Managers
- Performance Management Directors and Practitioners
- Supervisory Positions that are involved in Monitoring and Evaluation
- HR Directors, Managers and Practitioners
- Monitoring and Evaluation Directors and Managers Strategic Planners
- Performance Improvement Coordinators
- Project Managers
- Auditors

About your Presenter:

M-Tech, M Phil, PhD

The Facilitator completed five qualifications, one in undergraduate with the focus on economics and public administration. In all his post graduate studies which include a MBA, MPhil in Entrepreneurship the main focus was on business management and business strategy. The Phd included various disciplines such as economics, business economics, and business strategy and supply chain management. After the completion of his Phd he is focussing on socio-economic research and solving social development issues. Your Facilitator has successfully supervised seven master students, addressed 30 international conferences and published 15 accredited articles in international journals. He has been invited on various occasions to be a guest speaker at International conferences. He has a passion to work with people and his hobby is to lecture and empower people with knowledge.