

Apply Governance Principles for Effective Financial Management and Procurement Practices

11th – 15th March 2019

Premier O. R. Tambo Hotel, Kempton Park Johannesburg , South Africa

5 Credits towards a Diploma in Management NQF Level 6

Course Outcomes

- Understanding Governance and Compliance for Public Sector Institutions
- Improving Government Procurement Systems to Achieve Quality Services
- Implementing Measures to Curb and Control Corruption in Procurement
- Refining Government Procurement Systems to Streamline Quality Services and Achieve goals
- Applying Financial Management Principles to Capitalise on Opportunities and Adapt Change
- Understanding the Requirements of Risk Reporting

Who Should Attend:

- CFO's, Financial Managers and Directors
- Procurement Directors, Managers and Specialist
- Internal Auditors and Procurement Auditors
- Risk Managers
- Procurement Officers and Purchasing Managers
- Operations Managers
- Members of Tender Committees
- Strategic Planners
- Line Directors and Manager

About your Presenter:

National Diploma in Public Administration, BA Police Science and Criminal Law, Honors BA (cum laude), MBA

Your Presenter worked for the Free State Provincial Government for almost 20 years. He was the Head of the Procurement Office in the Treasury and responsible for training in Supply Chain Management (SCM) of all Departments in the Free State. From 1992 – 1999 he was at Free State Treasury where he was responsible for the SCM implementation controlling and evaluating procurement and the provisioning of administrative assistance with regards to the compilation, advertisement and conclusion of tenders amongst others. He joined SAMDI (now National School of Governance) in 1999 as an IIC and presented courses on Procurement, Contract Management, Asset Management and Logistics Managements amongst others to National, Provincial Departments and Municipalities. He also assisted in the updating and development of the training manuals for al SCM courses. He is a well-known presenter in the field of Public Management and presented various courses on behalf of National Treasury, PWC, Prominent Business Schools and the University of the Free State amongst others.

Intelligent Africa Marketing and Training
Tel: 0027 12 997 7676 • Fax: 0027 12 997 7034
info@intelligentafrica.com • www.intelligentafrica.com