

Women in Leadership

9th - 13th October 2017

Emperors Palace Hotel Casino and Convention Resort
Kempton Park, Johannesburg, South Africa

20 credits towards the Advanced Diploma in Management at NQF level 7

Course Outcomes:

- Understanding the full meaning of leadership and see the leadership potential in yourself and others
- Identifying major personality dimensions and understand how personality influence leadership and relationships within the organisation
- Recognising how mental models guide your behaviour and relationships
- Applying the difference between intrinsic and extrinsic rewards in leadership
- Acting as a communication champion rather than just as an information processor
- Turning a group of individuals into a collaborative team that achieves high performance through shared mission and collective responsibility
- Using power and politics to help accomplish important organisational goals
- Explaining the relationship among vision, mission, strategy and implementation mechanisms
- Understand why shaping culture is a critical function of leadership
- Understanding planning as a managerial activity and the planning process
- Improve service delivery through the application of project management concepts and methodologies

Who Should Attend?

- Women in positions in organizations that are required to demonstrate and high level of leadership capabilities
- Members of Parliament and Speakers
- Director Generals and Deputy Director Generals
- Directors and Deputy Directors
- Chief Executive Officers
- Premiers
- Executive Mayors
- Municipal Managers
- Councillors

About Your Presenter:

BCom Human Resource Management, Hons B Com Labour Relations and MCom Industrial Psychology, Phd Industrial Psychology

Your Facilitator received several awards for academic performance during her studies. Subsequently she began her career as a full-time academic in 2005. Currently she has more than a 100 scientific publications including books, chapters in textbooks, peer reviewed conference proceedings and journal articles. Her areas of expertise include HR, Talent Management and Performance Management amongst others. Your Facilitator has served as the Chair of the SABPP during 2011 and 2012 as well as its executive board. Her research outputs have resulted in various research awards and nominations. In 2009 she received the Vice-Chancellors Award for Excellence in Teaching, Research and Innovation by the University of Johannesburg.

Intelligent Africa Marketing and Training

Tel: 0027 12 997 7676 • Fax: 0027 12 997 7034

info@intelligentafrika.com • www.intelligentafrika.com